

Computer illustrator exam

Ans 1 the main difference between illustrator and photoshop is raster based art and use pixels to create images. whereas illustrator work on vectors, this program is for creating and editing vector-based work such as graphics, logos. moving on illustrator is not ideal for creating multi-page document. and photoshop is bad program to use when creating logos.

Ans2 AI

Ans3 To move an object, select the object you want to move then, object>arrange>send to back.

ANS4 BY USING ELLIPSE TOOL. select the ellipse tool then draw a circle and fill color .

ANS5 with the help of revolve effect ,when we select this effect a dialog box open there is a lot function in its by adjusting them we get the desire shape we want.

ANS6 path finder is the tool which helps to merge two element.

Ans7by using paint brush tool preferences.in this tool we have to set the smoothness that we want.

Ans8 c

Ans9 plugins for adobe illustrator can improve the artwork in term of quality and time taken.the illustrator plug-ins are use because they extend the certain functionality for users to enhance the specific aspects of their creation.

Ans10 adobe illustrator is a software which is used to make logos ,fonts,presentation,alphabeticaland numerical images,banners and flex.as this vector based graphics programmes.their is a lot scope in this program every company need a graphic designer to make a logo for its product .